

SECRET

FALL PASTIME
AGENT DESCRIPTION FORM

NAME OF AGENT: CAHIER

Date: 1 May 1948

Case Officer:

I. INTELLIGENCE VALUE

- A. Supplies fair amount of information based upon his high position in the CDU, his acquaintance with former German Foreign Office personnel, and his close association, both past and present, with the boy scout movement.
- B. Fall Pastime conditions would not necessarily affect Subject's present activity, at least not until all non-Communist politicians are completely purged from political and public life. And in such a contingency, Subject would probably continue to maintain his work underground.

II. OPERATIONAL CONSIDERATIONS

- A.
 - 1. High CDU official who does some fence-sitting rather than follow his Berlin party colleagues into a clear denunciation of the Sovzone party machine; active in Berlin anti-Communist youth organization.
 - 2. Shares apartment with a man suspected of being a British intelligence informant; lives in large apartment house, in which Nadolny has an apartment.
 - 3. Anti-fascist bourgeois.
 - 4. Leads modest life, apparently manages on party income.
 - 5. Pro-Western CDU leader.
- B. May be useful in intelligence activities, but not for sabotage purposes. Has excellent background of subversive work (acquired in Nazi times), but might choose to support his own party's underground activities (if such should be carried on) rather than work for Western Allies exclusively. (Perhaps in similar fashion as ISK activities against Nazi Germany during WW II; they gave us some info, but did not disclose details of their operations.)

III. TECHNICAL DETAILS CONCERNING RECONTACTING

Could perhaps best be contacted through his friends CAIN and Andreas HERMES or, with great care to be taken, through local CDU friends. Contact possible by phone or letter to him or his roommate referring to and as the case officers known to him. Subject is very clever in understanding double-talk, and danger of being exposed by him is extremely small.
